

SESSION I
JUVENILE JUSTICE
HOMEWORK

Answer the following questions in paragraph form. These are required to be answered on a separate piece of paper.

1. What happened that resulted in you being required to attend the First Offender Program?

2. Research and report how the consequences of the actions may have been different if you were an adult. Show an example from newspaper or magazine articles or interview a lawyer, judge, or police officer.
*This report is to be one page, hand written and documented. (Name and contact number of someone you interviewed, attach the article, etc... and staple to the assignment.

3. What were you thinking at the time of your actions?

4. Name three people your actions have affected, one of which must be a non-family member. How has each person been affected?

5. What would you do differently if you were faced with the same situation now?
